BETWEEN:

WHEREAS the parties hereto have agreed to enter into a Collective Agreement upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth with respect to employees employed in the job classifications listed in Schedule "A" hereto.

AND WHEREAS the Company agrees to recognize the Union as the bargaining representative of the said employees, subject to the conditions hereinafter contained:

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSES that in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter contained, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I - DEFINITION

1.01 Employees wherever mentioned in this Agreement shall not be deemed to include persons employed in a confidential capacity, or having authority to employ or discharge employees.

1.02 In all relations between the parties hereto under this Agreement, the Union, so long as it remains the certified bargaining representative of the said employees, shall be represented by its bargaining representatives.

ARTICLE II - UNION SECURITY

2.01 There shall be no discrimination against any employee for belonging to the Union, or carrying out Union policy within the terms of this Agreement.

2.02 The Company agrees that as a condition of employment, all employees will pay dues to the Union in the amount set for the class of work in which such employees are engaged. The Company is to retain the right to hire employees, provided the Union is asked to fill any vacancy before a non-Union person is hired. Similarly, in lay-offs, no Union person will be released while a non-Union person is retained. The Union agrees that in the interpretation of the previous sentence, discretion will be used to the end that there will be no interference with efficient operations.

Upon receipt of a check-off authorization from the Union, the Company shall make payroll deductions covering Union dues, initiations, reinstatement fees and assessments, as may be established by the Union's Constitution and/or By-laws. These deductions shall be remitted by the Company by the 15th of each month.

The Union agrees to indemnify the Company and hold it harmless against any claim that may arise in complying with the provisions of this article.

2.03 The Company agrees that any person employed who, at the date of this Agreement was a member of the Union in good standing, or who has become a member of the Union since that date, shall, as a condition of continued employment, maintain membership in good standing and any employee who hereafter, during the life of this Agreement becomes a member, or is reinstated as a member of the Union shall, as a condition of continued employment, maintain membership in good standing.

- (a) The Company approves membership in the Union and the Union retaining as members employees as defined in this Agreement.
- (b) The Company agrees to advise all present and future employees and its supervisors and foremen of the contents of this Agreement.
- (c) No employee shall be subjected to any penalties against their application for membership or reinstatement, except as may be provided for in the Constitution and By-laws of the Union.
- (d) The Union agrees that there shall be no solicitation of any employees for Union membership or payment of dues in working hours on the Company's premises.
- (e) It is agreed that in the event of an industrial dispute, or other disturbance taking place on the Company's property, that the watchman and guards will remain at their posts in order to protect the plant and continue unhindered with their usual duties.
- (f) It is agreed that in the event of an industrial dispute that such maintenance people as are required to prevent deterioration of machinery will be allowed access to the plant in order to carry out these duties.

ARTICLE III - UNION MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

3.01 The entire management of the Company and the direction of the working forces are vested exclusively in the Company, and the Union shall not in any way interfere with these rights.

3.02 No Union business shall be carried on during working hours; the Business Representatives of the Union shall have access to the Company's premises by applying to the Management for permission, provided they do not interfere or cause employees to neglect their work.

3.03 Employees will take orders from the Plant Manager or Superintendent only when their immediate foreman or charge-hand is not readily available.

ARTICLE IV - WAGES

4.01 Wage rates shall be in accordance with Schedule "A" attached hereto and shall be effective on the dates shown in Schedule "A".

ARTICLE V - HOURS OF WORK

5.01 The standard hours of work shall be forty (40) hours per week and whatever hours per day (not to exceed eight (8)), are mutually agreed between Management and employees.

5.02 Time worked in excess of standard hours of work shall be considered as overtime and shall be paid at double time. Except for planned maintenance as outlined in 5.03, all work performed on Saturdays and Sundays shall be paid for at double time.

5.03 On planned maintenance, seven (7) days' notice will be given employees required to work on Saturday, in which case Monday will be their day off, no overtime being paid for such work. On break-downs requiring work on Saturday when the seven (7) days' notice has not been given, overtime rates will prevail.

5.04 (a) If a second shift is employed, the hours of work shall be seven and one half (7 1/2) hours per shift and the shift premium shall be Two Dollars and 24 cents ($2.24) per hour worked.

(b) If a third shift is employed, the hours of work shall be seven (7)

- (c) Two (2) full shifts must be worked by a second shift worker before that shift can be established. Otherwise overtime rates shall prevail.
- (d) When changed shifts for any employee do not last two (2) shifts or more, the time for these shifts will be paid at the usual overtime rates.
- (e) Any employee who starts work after the starting time of the first half of any shift and resumes work in the second half of the same shift shall be paid full time for the second half of the shift, but only for the actual time worked in the first half of the shift, unless the reason for terminating the work is beyond the control of the Company.
- (f) Employers will make every effort to schedule employee shift changes at the weekend. However, if it is necessary to change shifts in mid-week, where there are less than fifteen (15) hours between the end of the employee's former shift and the start of their new shift, they shall work only half of either the last shift they are leaving or the first shift they are joining without any loss in pay.
- (g) The parties may, by mutual agreement, institute twelve (12) hour shifts, in which case, the hours of work shall be as follows:

5.08 A day shift employee working after midnight on overtime work reporting for work on their next regular shift, shall not report until eight (8) hours have elapsed between the time they finished working overtime and the time they start work the following day. However, providing they report for work after the elapsed eight (8) hours and work until the end of their regular shift, they shall be paid as though they started the shift at the regular starting time.

This time is not to exceed one half hour and the employee will be considered to be at work for the time they are consuming the meal. If the length of the overtime is anticipated, it shall be given at the beginning of the overtime. If this is not possible, it will be given after two (2) hours of overtime have been worked. Any employee who purchases a meal under the conditions outlined above, will be allowed the cost of such meal up to a maximum of fifteen dollars ($15.00). The fifteen dollar meal allowance will be paid for each four (4) hours thereafter. Receipts are to be submitted for meals if asked for and meal allowance will not be included in pay cheques. Employees will not be asked to eat meals supplied by the vessel (freighters).

A holiday schedule shall be prepared and, subject to Management's production requirements, shall give employees an opportunity to indicate vacation periods wanted. If there is a dispute, the senior employee may take preference. Once the list has been approved by Management, it shall be posted as final, and it shall not be changed by the Company within the one (1) month period immediately preceding the start of an employee's vacation, without the consent of the employee concerned.

7.07 In determining length of service, employees on the payroll for seventy-eight (78) two (2) week pay periods shall be deemed to have three (3) years service. If employees are instructed to call for material or equipment at the yard, traveling shall be done in the Company's time. In this case, no extra traveling time will be allowed.

10.03 If employees detailed for work away from the Shop are instructed to report at the Company's plant for materials or tools, traveling will then be done on Company's time and expense.

10.04 When traveling on a job which requires the employee to be away from home, traveling time on any day shall be paid at straight time rate for the hours lost traveling to a maximum of eight (8) hours in each twenty-four (24) hour period.

10.09 Any welder welding over dry paint, or any person burning off dry paint, shall be paid time and one quarter if, in the opinion of the Foreman and Shop Steward the work in question justified such pay.

10.10 The Company shall operate suitable ventilation equipment for removing fumes from confined spaces, and the employees shall undertake not to interfere with this operation.

10.11 All painting, cement finishing, tarring etc. work shall be done after welding, wherever possible.

ARTICLE XI - SENIORITY

11.01 Seniority shall be attained after sixty (60) working days within a six (6) month period, and the seniority date shall be backdated to the date of employment. A seniority list shall be posted in the plant by Management not less often than every six (6) months).

11.02 When the Company increases or decreases the working force and when, in the opinion of the Company and the Union, the skill and ability of the employees concerned is equal, length of service with the Company in their classification, as defined in the following clauses, shall be the determining factor in deciding the order of re-hiring and lay-off as the case may be.

11.03 An employee shall not suffer loss of seniority because of absence due to sickness, accident or otherwise, if such absence is approved or authorized by the Company. If an employee finds that they are unable to report for work, they should notify the company as soon as possible, preferably before the end of their first missed shift.

11.04 During a prolonged absence from work due to an accident or injury covered by Workers Compensation, an employee will continue to accrue seniority for a period of time, provided that they will not continue to accrue seniority after the date at which they would normally have been laid off if they were at work.

11.05 An employee shall continue to accrue seniority if off on non-compensable sickness for a period of six (6) months unless they would have normally been laid off before the six (6) month period.

11.06 An employee who has seniority shall maintain their seniority on lay-off up to a period of one (1) year.

11.07 Leave of absence shall mean an absence from work requested by the employee and consented to by the Company in writing covering a specified period of time. Leave of absence shall not be granted to an employee seeking seasonal work. A copy of such written permission shall be sent to the Union at the time it is granted.

11.08 In order to lay-off or re-hire employees out of seniority, the difference in skill and ability must be distinct, or seniority applies.

11.09 In the event of a temporary lay-off, due to a breakdown of machinery or some similar situation, such as failure to receive an expected delivery of steel, which lay-off is not expected to last longer than twenty-four (24) hours, the employees immediately affected will be laid off temporarily.

11.10 The Shop Steward shall be given forty-eight (48) hours notice of lay-offs in advance of such lay-offs, if possible.

11.11 Any employee with seniority standing, when re-called for work, shall have the right to compare the length of work involved with their present employment to decide on a by-pass. After by-passing the work call once, the employee shall lose their seniority standing if they do not return to work on the next call. The second re-call notice to work, if used to terminate an employee's seniority on lay-off, may not be given until a full calendar month has passed subsequent to the date on which the first notice was given. Sickness confirmed by a doctor will not be counted as a by-pass. Loss of seniority in these cases will be subject to review of the circumstances by the parties to this Agreement, with power to re-establish the employee's seniority rights after this consideration.

When a laid-off employee on the seniority list is re-called for work, the Company will endeavour to provide at least three (3) days of employment. If less than three (3) days is offered and the employee declines, this will not be considered as a first or second by-pass for purposes of termination of seniority.

All call-backs for employees on lay-off will be done through the Union Dispatcher whenever possible.

ARTICLE XII - GENERAL PROVISIONS

12.01 (a) In the event of an employee being temporarily employed at a higher paid class of work than their own, the full hourly rate of pay agreed to for such classification shall be paid.

In cases such as grandparents, brother, sister or children, such leave of absence may be granted up to a maximum of three (3) consecutive working days. The employee must notify the Personnel Department when such leave is being requested and/or taken. Abuse of this section will render the employee liable to non-payment of this allowance.

12.08 The Company will replace employee's tools, properly brought into the yard premises in cases where it can be verified that the tools were lost other than by negligence, such loss to be during the course of the employee's employment duties.

12.09 The Company will replace welders gloves where it can be verified that the gloves, being in good condition, were lost or rendered unusable by damage, other than by negligence or normal wear, such damage or loss to be during the course of the employee's employment duties. In addition, the Company will purchase welders gloves at wholesale and supply them at the Company's cost to the employees who want them.

12.10 The Company and the Union agree that the practice commonly known as "moonlighting" is wrong in principle. The term "moonlighting" for purposes of this clause shall refer to a full-time employee who regularly makes a practice of working for another employer for a substantial number of hours during the week.

- (a) When this practice affects or conflicts with the Company business, or the employee's ability to perform their normal duties, it shall be cause for reprimand or dismissal.
- (b) When this practice affects or conflicts with the Union policy, the Company agrees to co-operate with the Union in reprimand or dismissal.
